Background

NACMA members were advised of the members of the NACMA Committees via Member Update 34 of 08 on 21st October 2008.

Committee Terms of Reference

Due to the increase in interest from various sectors in the NACMA process, NACMA has published the Terms of Reference (TOR) for each of the Committees. These TOR are subject to review on a regular basis by the Committee

The Terms of Reference for each of the Committees is on the NACMA website

Confidentiality Agreement

All Committee members are required to sign a Confidentiality Agreement that details how Committee members are able to handle confidential information presented to the Committee and also the dissemination of Committee information.

It is expected that Committee members will consult with other commercial operators from within and external to their particular sector of the grain supply chain. This is accepted and expected of the members in order for them to be able to conduct their deliberations within Committee.

However, Committee members are not at liberty to discuss Committee deliberations to the media in any capacity.
